Really fun and addicting game. And for such a low price! Well designed and well balanced.. This game is fun and hilarious, and is very well executed. As your first question in reading this review section is probably pertaining to whether this game is p2w, allow me put your mind at ease. You acquire cards and build a collection as you play, but there are no in-game microtransactions. This adds to the feeling that you've earned the ability to build effective decks (which doesn't take long at all). Journey of Greed is a great example of how digital board/card games can be, and for that alone I am willing to support the developers by paying the small price tag. The game's name is actually quite ironic in this sense, as the people who made this one are clearly not in it for the money. As far as gameplay goes, the game reminds me of Gremlins Inc. in the sheer ruthlessness of things you can do to advance yourself at your opponents' expense, but Journey of Greed is not nearly as long and tedious as Gremlins. In fact, the short timer for each turn is one of my favourite elements of the game, as players are presented with relatively little time to make decisions. This means you have to think quickly and often make decisions based on speculation or probability, knowing that your opponents can impact the order of the islands at a moment's notice and throw your plan into jeopardy. A few suggestions that could improve an already great game in future updates: 1) Add cosmetic rewards for players to purchase using gold or diamonds. These could be different emotes, voice lines, or player portraits. Having at least one male and one female portrait for each character class would be nice. 2) Incorporate friends' list and the ability to send friend requests to opponents after a match (and invite them via the friends list to private matches). 3) There are some minor spelling/grammatical mistakes that need tweaking.. If you're looking for a game with a lot of deception, danger, and hella loot this is the game for you. A four player card/board game that plays out like an explorer's grand adventure. I don't write a lot of reviews, but the fact that this game is so good at early access, and has such a low price means you should get it and give it a try even if you're on the fence. The game can be sort of challenging at first, but there is just so much freedom in each players strategy that you never really know what will happen in any game.. It's a very addictive game indeed and with this price tag it's a steal! No 2 matches are the same and you are engaged 100% of the time.. Game is absurdly fun. Very satisfying mix of RNG and skillful tactical gameplay. You can really make some cool decks once you know what you are doing. I've already got a ton of hours out of it in just a few days.. The Demo is here! : A lot of you asked us for a discount to buy 1 or more copies for your friends, but it doesn't sound right for us, in fact, you shouldn't have to buy the game for your friends just for them to try it out. So we decided to add a demo so you can play with your friends without any additional burden. Here are the differences between the demo and the complete version:

1. You can't play Ladder Mode after rank Rookie
2. You can only create custom room 3 times (but can join unlimited times)
3. You can open 20 packs in total
4. Your data will be synced after you purchase the complete version. Welcome and enjoy! If you encountered any technical issues, don't hesitate to contact support at supportyoutufun.com.

2. Added a functionality to mark the islands in front of you to help you with deduction.
3. Some font changes.
4. A few bug fixes.

2. Change the level cap of each hero to 30.
3. Added a cancel button in the join room interface.
4. We not display the name of the player that picked the option of an Island Card.
5. You can quit a campaign match by clicking "Quit Match" in the settings menu.

8. Fixed some card logic, and the closing door issue.

v.0.2.0 Ghost Mode is here! : In order to fix the issue where you can't do anything but watch after you escaped or died, we added a new mode in match called Ghost Mode. Now, after you escape or die, we are providing you a new sets of cards to "predict" the outcome of the on-going match, the result will affect your Savings. In addition, we made following changes to the game:

1. Your Coins will now be turned into Savings right after you escape;
2. Three challenge levels are now added to chapter 1 and 2 of the campaign;
3. Added following skill cards: (Special thanks to , if you have any ideas or suggestions, let us know!) Ponzi Scheme, Spirit Salvation, Tech Essence, Charge, Backtrace, Alternative, Recruit, Entrapment, Improvise, Pray
4. Updated following cards: Gear Rental, Paralyze Potion, Illegal Alchemy, Grim Blessing, Life Restoration, Red Curse, Potion Stealer, Desperation, Dark Dealing, Cursed Armor, Blast Arrow, Threat, Deep Hatred, Dual, Peer Competition (is now 'Undermine'), Ancient Lamp

(In case the room owner accidentally clicked on 'Start', thanks to RequieX for the suggestion) Benediction will not longer count players that died last turn. If you kill yourself after playing a card, you won't get any more money. Since we just released the Ghost Mode, we need more data to determine how this mode is gonna affect the grand strategy and make changes accordingly, so if you have any suggestions or complains, don't hesitate to tell us! (Through Discord: or email: supportyoutufun.com).

About this Early Access : First of all, a huge thanks to everyone participated in our closed Alpha. We've been making this game for over a year, and sometimes you can't see the whole picture if you've dived in too deep. And your feedbacks really helped us see things clearer, such as what the game really is about and what we should focus on. And it warms our heart to see so many people playing our game and having fun, which reaffirmed our determination for this early access release. Now that we are launching Early Access, I want to take the time to address some of the common questions:

1. Are there micro transactions? No, since we are charging you up front, the packs you get with in-game currency is more of a progression rather than a way to grind you out.
2. I don't have 3 buddies to play with, can I play this by myself? Of course! You can use the ladder or casual mode to play online. And you can still use the custom room even if you don't have exactly 4 people to play with, the system will just fill the empty slots with bots (difficulty depends on your average rank).
3. Looks a bit cartoon-ish, is this game for me? We chose this style mainly because of the comedy theme we are going for. While the game can be stupidly fun and hilarious to play with your friends, it is actually pretty hardcore and brain consuming to play with high rank/skill players. So I would say if you are a board game lover, a hardcore TCG player, or just want to find a game to play and banter with your friends, this might be for you!
4. What are the chances to gain rare cards? You can get at least one legendary card for every ten packs. Again, we are not using card packs for monetization purpose, you should find it pretty easy and fair to get packs and rare cards. More importantly, if we've done everything right, more cards just guarantee more strategy, but it doesn't guarantee a win.
5. What is your plan for the future? While you can play with your friends using custom rooms, we do recognize the importance of the friends feature, so that's our most immediate concern. Besides the weekly tweaks and changes. Other big stuff that's on our plate: fill in more chapters (with challenges and rewards) for the campaign; A new character and more cards; custom expressions. Also, we did receive some comments about the art and music in the game over the last few weeks. If the budget permits, we will start looking into how to improve the art and music. All of this can be changed based on feedbacks, part of the reason why we are doing Early Access. Thanks again everyone for your interest in our game! At the end of the day, we are just a small team of 3, so if you enjoy our game, share it and get the word out, it would help us a lot.
